

Apostle Sharon Broaddus

The apostolic call and mandate on Apostle Sharon Broaddus life is over forty years in the making. She is a compassionate visionary and solidly grounded in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. When she preaches the power of God falls and the atmosphere is charged for healing and deliverance. Apostle Broaddus is the visionary founder of God's House of Royalty Ministries. In this ministry, she teaches people how to walk in their God given Kingdom authority, the difference between God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, angels, demons, the spiritual realm, death/dying and how to pray for the sick. She is a firm believer in Mark 16: 17 and preaching and teaching the Kingdom of God. She is one of the Associate Ministers at Saint Paul's Baptist church under the leadership of Rev. Doctor Lance Watson.

As a Community Pastor and Faith Leader, Apostle Broaddus offers her seasoned gifts as a Grief Counselor working alongside the Richmond, Virginia Police department staff, as they serve as First Responders when families have experienced loss due to violence in the streets. Her faith, hugs and words of spiritual counsel has helped many to experience the comfort of the Holy Spirit and to go on and have a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ. Pastor Broaddus has a BA in Theology, Masters in Christian Counseling and graduated from Evangelist Tim Storey's School of Miracles. She received a Leadership Certificate from the University of Richmond and Management Skills. She is a graduate of the TheoPhostic Ministry Facilitator's Training, and additionally completed courses at the Evans Smith Institute at the School of Theology of Virginia Union University and graduated from Faith Landmark Bible Institute.

She often states, "I know nothing but Jesus Christ and Him crucified" and she lives to help others as she serves our Father. Apostle Broaddus is married to Edward L. Broaddus, Sr., she has six children, thirteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
