

Sundra M. Johnson is an Ordained Minister and Elder here at Mt. Gilead Full Gospel International Ministries where she oversees the charge to Economically Empowerment the members in the areas of Business, Finance, Housing and Careers. Elder Johnson also oversees the Transformation Center which is otherwise known as the Bookstore Ministry. She actively serves on the International Missions Ministry and has traveled as a Missionary to places such as Kenya, Ghana, Dubai, Budapest, Vienna, and Austria.

Elder Johnson served over 25 years in contracting for several government agencies in Greenville, South Carolina and lastly for the City of Richmond, VA. Her many years of contracting experience served her well as she began her new career in Real Estate in 2004 and which ultimately led to her establishing a Full-Service Real Estate Brokerage in 2011, J & S Real Estate, where she is the owner and Principal Broker. J & S Real Estate is SWAM Certified as a Small, Woman-Owned, Minority Business and is home of the “God Did It” Signs. She is the Founder of Sundra Johnson Ministries whose Mission is to Encourage, Enrich and Empower Women to use their Gift and Talents to fulfill their God-Given Purpose and Destiny in Life. Her Vision is to serve as a Spiritual Midwife for women to “Release the Greatness” from within. Elder Sundra Johnson resides in Chesterfield Virginia with her husband, Joseph L. Johnson, a Retired Lieutenant Colonel of the United States Army and whom she partners with in his business, J & S Tax, and Investments, as well as Primerica. They have been married nearly 24 years and have a beautiful family which they love: daughter, Kelly; son, Joseph, Jr; and a granddaughter, Kayla.
